

Dukes Martial Arts Academy

Student Rules and Regulations

- Execute a bow of courtesy upon meeting an instructor or higher belt.
- The GI (uniform) must be clean and complete at all times.
- Observe a high degree of personal cleanliness. Toenails and fingernails should be kept trimmed to avoid injuring other students.
- Strict attention is to be given to the instructor at all times. Conversations are to be kept to a minimum during class.
- Proper respect will always be displayed to all persons.
- Profanity, loss of temper, horseplay, loud laughing and talking, or any display of lack of self discipline will not be tolerated.
- All students should be on time for classes. Those who arrive early for a class should take the opportunity to do stretching or practice current techniques.
- Do not complain about strenuous conditions.
- The title of Mister or Misses followed by the applicable last name will be used to address all instructors.
- Shorin-Ryu Karate techniques are not to be applied out of the school; unless circumstances involving your safety or the safety of others are overriding.
- Turn away from the instructor when tying your belt or fixing your uniform.
- Every student is subject to the schools rules and regulations. Non-compliance will result in the following penalties:
 - Warning
 - Reduction of test scores or denial of permission to test
 - Suspension

Children's Home Rules

- You must show respect to your parents and family members at all times.
- Greet your parents when you enter the house and tell them good-bye when you leave.
- You must be truthful at all times.
- Try to help with the household chores.
- Keep your room neat and clean.
- Keep your body, hair and teeth clean at all times. (every day)
- Study your school work at school and at home. Do your best to achieve and maintain a B average or above.
- Show respect to your teachers and fellow students at all times.

By Grand Master Dukes